

Vermillion Federal Credit Union
Online Services
Account Access Agreement

I wish to access my account(s) by using the following:

Account #	CU*Talk (Phone Banking)	It's Me 247 (Online Banking)	E-Statements *Email Required	Completed (Office Use)	Date (Office Use)

- It's Me 247 account access system is a privilege and may be suspended and/or revoked by the Credit Union.
- It is my responsibility to keep the account number, password/PIN (Personal Identification Number), and answers to security questions, secure at all times.
- All owners of the account(s) will have access to all subaccounts, even though they may be joint on select accounts.
- If I encounter transactions that were not of my own, I shall contact the Credit Union immediately and refer to the Credit Union's current Truth In Savings Booklet to understand my rights.
- If enrolling for E-Statements, you will need to be enrolled for It's Me 247 (online banking) and have a valid email address. You will receive a monthly email from the Credit Union to notify you that your monthly statement is available to view online. Once you log in to It's Me 247, you will see an "E-Statements" link. Click this link to access the E-Statement system. Once there you will see various options for electronically archived information from your account. To view your account statement from here, simply click on "View Your Statement"
